The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

An Act requiring certain officials to be trained in cardiopulmonary resuscitation.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 142 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 11A the following section:—

Section 11B. Any person appointed inspector of plumbing or inspector of gasfitting under sections 11 and 11A shall be trained to administer cardiopulmonary resuscitation. The training shall not be less than the standards established by the Committee on Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation and Emergency Cardiac Care of the American Heart Association, and shall be satisfactorily completed by them as soon as practical but in no event more than one year after the date of their appointment.

SECTION 2. Section 3 of chapter 143 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 1998 Official Edition is hereby amended by adding the following paragraph:—

Any person appointed hereunder shall be trained to administer cardiopulmonary resuscitation. The training shall not be less than the standards established by the Committee on Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation and Emergency Cardiac Care of the American Heart Association, and shall be satisfactorily completed by them as soon as practical, but in no event more than one year after the date of their appointment.

16 SECTION 3. Section 32 of chapter 166 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 17 amended by adding the following paragraph:—

18 Any person appointed hereunder shall be trained to administer cardiopulmonary
19 resuscitation. The training shall not be less than the standards established by the Committee on
20 Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation and Emergency Cardiac Care of the American Heart
21 Association, and shall be satisfactorily completed by them as soon as practical, but in no event
22 more than one year after the date of their appointment.
