An Act relative to authorizing retired clerk magistrates and assistant clerk magistrates to perform certain duties.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 32 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 65G, as appearing in the 2006 Official Edition, the following section:—

Section 65G½. Any retired clerk magistrate or assistant clerk magistrate who is retired from office may notify the chief justice for administration and management in writing that he wishes his name to be placed upon the list of retired clerks. Said chief justice may place the name of any such clerk on the list of retired clerks. With respect to those whose names have been placed on such list upon retirement, any retired clerk or any surviving spouse of a retired clerk shall be entitled to the same pension and all other benefits which he or his surviving spouse would have been entitled to receive if he had retired without his name having been placed on such list, notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, and a vacancy shall exist in the office theretofore occupied by such retired clerk. A retired clerk whose name has been placed on a list of retired clerks shall be eligible to perform clerk-magistrate duties only as provided in section 14A of chapter 211B.
