7 hundred and twelve.

8 “Hospital,” any hospital licensed under section fifty-one of chapter one hundred and 9 eleven, the teaching hospital of the University of Massachusetts Medical School and any 10 psychiatric facility licensed under section nineteen of chapter nineteen.

11 SECTION 3. Section 2 of chapter 132B of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 12 amended by striking out the definition of “Integrated pest management” and inserting in place
13 thereof the following definition:-

14 "Integrated pest management", a comprehensive strategy of pest control whose major 15 objective is to achieve desired levels of pest control in a way that minimizes public health risks 16 and environmental damage by combining multiple pest control measures to reduce the need for 17 reliance on chemical pesticides; more specifically, a combination of pest controls which 18 addresses conditions that support pests and may include, but is not limited to, the use of 19 monitoring techniques to determine immediate and ongoing need for pest control, increased 20 sanitation, physical barrier methods, crop rotation, training, the use of natural pest enemies and a 21 judicious use of lowest risk pesticides when necessary.

22 SECTION 4. Section 2 of chapter 132B of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 23 amended by inserting after “Pesticide” the following definition:-

24 “Pesticide advisory subcommittee,” the subcommittee created by section 3B of this 25 chapter.

26 SECTION 5. Section 2 of chapter 132B of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 27 amended by inserting after “Plant regulator” the following definition:-

28 “Priority Toxic Pesticide,” any of the substances contained in the list promulgated by the 29 Pesticide Advisory Subcommittee pursuant to Section 3B of this chapter.

30 SECTION 6. Section 2 of chapter 132B of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 31 amended by inserting after “Protect health and the environment” the following definitions:-

32 “Public building,” any building owned, occupied, or used by any public entity including 33 but not limited to the commonwealth and any county, city, town, authority, transit or school 34 district, or any agency or instrumentality thereof.

35 “Public housing,” any federal, state or municipally subsidized housing or housing project.

37 amended by inserting after “Registrant” the following definition:-

38 “Retailer,” any private business that sells a product in the commonwealth.

39 SECTION 8. Chapter 132B of the General Laws, is hereby amended by inserting after 40 section 3A the following section:—

41 Section 3B. Pesticide advisory subcommittee. A subcommittee of the pesticide board 42 shall be the pesticide advisory subcommittee and shall create a list of priority toxic pesticides.
43 Said list shall be comprised of pesticides that are recognized as carcinogenic, mutagenic, or toxic 44 to development or reproduction when used as directed. This list will be subject to no fewer than 45 two public hearings in different regions of the commonwealth and an open public comment 46 period of not less than 90 days. The pesticide advisory subcommittee shall update this list every 47 two years or as health-related information becomes available regarding the toxicity of pesticides 48 not on the list. The subcommittee shall be appointed by the commissioner of the department and 49 shall consist of seven members: one representative from the Pesticide Board who shall chair the 50 subcommittee, one representative from the environmental community, one representative from 51 an occupational health group, one representative from the public health community, one 52 representative who is a physician or registered nurse, one licensed pesticide applicator, and one
53 representative from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst Extension Integrated Pest 54 Management Program.

55 SECTION 9. Within three months of the effective date of this act the pesticide advisory 56 subcommittee shall be appointed by the commissioner of the department of agricultural resources 57 pursuant to section 3B of chapter 132B.

58 SECTION 10. Section 6A of chapter 132B of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010
59 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting, in line 7, after the word “license.”, the 60 following words:- No individual certified or licensed as a pesticide applicator shall use any 61 priority toxic pesticide as designated by the pesticide advisory subcommittee pursuant to section
62 3B of this chapter. This restriction shall not apply to certified or licensed pesticide applicators 63 when applying priority toxic pesticides in commercial agricultural settings.

64 No state, municipality, school, daycare center, hospital, health care facility, or public 65 housing buildings or grounds, shall use or permit to be used any priority toxic pesticide.

66 SECTION 11. Section 7A of chapter 132B of the General Laws, is hereby amended by 67 striking out subsection (a) and inserting in place thereof the following subsection:—

68 Section 7A. (a) The department shall establish and implement a pesticide use reporting 69 system for use by government agencies, researchers, policy makers and the public to ensure the 70 public health and safety and to protect the environment of the commonwealth. In establishing 71 and implementing the system, said department shall design, develop and implement the system 72 in order to collect, evaluate, summarize, retain and report information on the use of pesticides in 73 each major category of use in the commonwealth, including agriculture, forestry, industrial, 74 commercial and homeowner uses. Said department shall, at least one time each year, collect the 75 best data practicable from each major category of pesticide use. This shall include, but not be 76 limited to, sales data from pesticide retailers in the commonwealth and application data from 77 each individual licensed or certified pesticide applicator, including the location of the application 78 of the pesticide. Data shall be collected in a manner that will allow such data to be used for 79 public health purposes, including, but not limited to, epidemiological studies, and for 80 environmental protection purposes. Such data shall be collected in a manner which minimizes
81 reporting costs. Said department shall begin operation of the required statewide data reporting
82 program on or before January 31, 2014.

83 SECTION 12. Section 7A of chapter 132B of the General Laws, as so appearing, is 84 hereby amended by striking out, in line 40, “2001”, and inserting in place thereof the following:-
85 “2014.”

86 SECTION 13. Section 7A of chapter 132B of the General Laws, as so appearing, is 87 hereby amended by striking out, in line 45, “2003”, and inserting in place thereof the following:-
88 “2014.”

89 SECTION 14. Subsection (c) section 7A of chapter 132B of the General Laws, as so
90 appearing, is hereby amended by adding, at the end of the section, the following sentence:- Said

91 department shall develop a consistent format for data reporting for each major category or use 92 and post said information on the web site.

93 SECTION 15: Chapter 132B of the General Laws, is hereby amended by striking out 94 section 14 and inserting in place thereof the following section:—

95 Section 14. Any person who knowingly violates any provision of section 6 of this chapter 96 shall be punished by a fine of not less than one thousand dollars and not more than twenty-five 97 thousand dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both such fine and 98 imprisonment, for each such violation, or shall be subject to a civil penalty not less than ten 99 thousand dollars and not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars for each such violation, which 100 may be assessed in an action brought on behalf of the commonwealth in any court of competent
101 jurisdiction. Each day of violation shall constitute a separate offense.

102 Any person who violates any provision of sections 6A to 6K, inclusive, or section 7A, 103 who violates any regulation adopted under the provisions of this chapter, (a) shall be punished by 104 a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or imprisonment for not more than six months, or 105 both such fine and imprisonment, for the second and each subsequent offense knowingly 106 committed, or (b), shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed ten thousand dollars for any 107 offense, which may be assessed in an action brought on behalf of the commonwealth in any court
108 of competent jurisdiction. Each day of violation shall constitute a separate offense.

109 Any person who violates any order issued under the provisions of this chapter, (a) shall 110 be punished by a fine of not less than one thousand dollars nor more than twenty-five thousand 111 dollars or imprisonment for not more than two years, or both such fine and imprisonment, for 112 each violation knowingly committed, or (b) shall be subject to a civil penalty not less than one 113 thousand dollars and not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars for each violation, which may be 114 assessed in an action brought on behalf of the commonwealth in any court of competent 115 jurisdiction. Each day of violation shall constitute a separate offense.

116 The superior court shall have jurisdiction to enjoin violations of, or grant such relief as it
117 deems necessary or appropriate to secure compliance with, any provision of this chapter or the 118 terms of an order, license, certification, registration, permit or regulation issued or adopted 119 thereunder.
